

1

WHAT IS THE MALAYSIA COMPETITION COMMISSION (MyCC) ?

A statutory body established under the Competition Commission Act 2010 (Act 713) for the purpose of enforcing the Competition Act 2010 (Act 712).

2

WHAT IS THE MAIN OBJECTIVE OF THE COMPETITION ACT 2010 ?

To protect the competition process by ensuring enterprises compete in the market to improve quality, provide better choices and offer competitive prices for goods and services.

3

WHAT ARE ANTI-COMPETITIVE PRACTICES ?

Anti-competitive agreements between enterprises and the abuse of dominant position.

4

WHAT IS AN ANTI-COMPETITIVE AGREEMENT ?

An agreement between enterprises which operates at the same level or different levels in the production or distribution chain for goods or services that has the objective of significantly preventing, restricting or distorting competition in the market.

5

WHAT ARE THE EXAMPLES OF ANTI-COMPETITIVE AGREEMENTS ?

They include fixing a purchase or selling price or any other trading conditions, sharing markets or sources of supply, limiting or controlling production, market outlets, technological development or investment or engaging in bid rigging.

6

WHAT IS ABUSE OF DOMINANT POSITION?

An enterprise with significant market power engaging in any conduct that can distort the competitive process without reasonable commercial justification.

7

WHAT IS AN EXAMPLE OF ABUSE OF DOMINANT POSITION?

It includes setting unreasonable purchase or selling prices, or unfair trading conditions, limiting or controlling production, market outlets, technological development or investment to the prejudice of consumers.

8

HOW DOES THE MyCC INITIATE AN ACTION AGAINST AN ANTI-COMPETITIVE PRACTICE?

Through information and complaints received from consumers, including other enterprises, and the general public, on condition that the information and complaints give rise to suspicion of an infringement. The Commission will also take action;

- in accordance with the Minister's instruction; or
- on its own initiative after conducting a market review.

9
