

MyCC ON DEPOT GATE CHARGES

KUALA LUMPUR, 29th May 2013 – The Malaysia Competition Commission (MyCC), in response to complaints filed by the Federation of Malaysian Manufacturers (FMM) and the Federation of Malaysian Freight Forwarders (FMFF) on the raising of depot gate charges (DGC) in Penang, states that it has not discussed with any parties nor given any consent on any new systems that led to rates revision of the DGC.

The MyCC has taken note of the complaints on the raising of the DGC and has commenced an investigation on the matter, adds MyCC Chief Executive Officer, Pn Shila Dorai Raj.

The MyCC maintains that while it is not a regulator on pricing issues, action will be taken against any enterprises or associations found to be acting in concert to fix prices and/or other trading conditions. Such acts are infringements of Section 4 of the Competition Act 2010.
